INFORMATION & GUIDELINES FOR FAMILIES

Welcome!

1. Calm Waters is a support center for children and families whose lives have been changed by death or divorce. Calm Waters does not provide counseling, but is a program that provides emotional support while working through the natural grieving process. Our mission is to teach healthy coping skills to children young adults and their families and provide a secure environment where they can safely express feelings of grief and loss, thus facilitating the process of healing. Calm Waters is:
 - A safe harbor in a storm
 - A place to share with others who are also experiencing loss
 - A place of understanding and growth
 - A place to begin rebuilding
2. Calm Waters is of the belief that every child, young adult, and family member deserves the opportunity to grieve in a supportive and understanding environment. Our society often fails to understand the needs of a child who is separated from a loved one through death or divorce. Based on these beliefs, the principles of Calm Waters are:
 - Grief is the natural reaction to the loss of a loved one through death or divorce
 - Children experience grief and loss in a different way than adults
 - Within each individual is the capacity to heal one's self
 - The duration and intensity of grief are unique for each individual
 - Caring and acceptance are important parts to the healing process
3. Calm Waters addresses issues directly related to death or divorce. The topics are presented in ways that are appropriate for each age group.
4. Calm Waters support groups are broken down by age, because children and adults have differing abilities to understand and express feelings of loss. Our program has groups for young children, ages 3-4; ages 5-7; ages 8-10; preteens, teens and young adults 19-25. Our children's groups consist of a sharing time and a time for play activities. The language of play helps young children to express their emotions and feelings.

While children meet in their support groups, parents gather to share their own concerns and feelings. Trained volunteers facilitate all groups. Calm Waters facilitators support and encourage the adults by providing information about how children grieve and how parents can help their children and each other through the painful process.

5. Children and adults respond to grief and loss in a variety of ways. The difficult feelings of grief may sometimes precipitate a crisis in a family (i.e. suicidal feelings, drug and alcohol abuse). Calm Waters recognizes that often a family may need more than support in processing their grief. The Calm Waters staff can refer you to counselors and other support groups in the area. The Calm Waters staff can assist you at this time in finding the emergency services that you need to guide you through this crisis. Please don't hesitate to contact us whenever you need referral information

6. Calm Waters' staff is available to discuss with you their impressions of your children in a general manner, but we consider what is spoken in the group time, member-to-member and member-to-volunteer facilitator or staff as confidential. Confidentiality is based upon our basic right of privacy and it is an important obligation for us to honor and assure the ongoing success of the support groups. The policy of confidentiality about the private information of your lives is strictly maintained except in cases of:

EXCEPTION 1: Suicidal expression

EXCEPTION 2: Physical, mental, sexual abuse

EXCEPTION 3: If we have reason to be concerned about the drug and alcohol use/abuse by a child, we reserve the right to inform the parent.

EXCEPTION 4: If the court subpoenas information, we will make an attempt to contact you about this order. If you oppose the release, a court may nevertheless require compliance with the order. General records kept by Calm Waters personnel include registration and attendance only.

EXCEPTION 5: If we learn that someone participating at Calm Waters might commit an act of violence or become a victim of violence, such as "a child or an adult is being abused," we WILL take steps to protect the intended victim against such danger by contacting DHS and/or law enforcement if necessary

If a family wants more specific feedback and evaluation of a child's grieving adjustment process, we recommend a professional evaluation by a therapist.

7. We view the issues of drug and alcohol abuse as counter-productive to the expression of grief and we believe that these issues need to be addressed professionally before grief work can proceed.

8. We offer a certificate of completion at the end of the support sessions, however, because of the importance of continuity of the groups at Calm Waters, and out of consideration for people on the waiting list, we ask that if a family misses more than two sessions in a row, without notification, that they return to the waiting list. The certificate of completion will not be issued to any family member who has not attended at least six sessions. It is the responsibility of the participant to notify Calm Waters if they are unable to attend their group session. (Please do not drop off your children; an adult must accompany the children to each group night).

9. Parents are responsible for their children at Calm Waters. Since the group time is limited, we ask that you feed your children prior to the beginning of group and allow them to use the restroom.

10. A parent or a facilitator must be with children when they are outside. No child is allowed to leave the building unaccompanied.

11. Calm Waters is a family program. Children attend children's support groups accompanied by a family member or guardian who attends the adult support group at the same time. Children are not able to attend groups without a responsible adult. Adults who attend must have a child attending groups.

12. In order to maintain the confidentiality and integrity of the groups, we ask that you not bring additional family members or friends to the group.
